BINGHAM - Jason Caudell, NP-C recently moved to the area to provide medical care at Bingham Area Health Center. "I grew up and was raised in a small rural farming community" he shared. "I love small town life. I was pleased to find an opportunity in Bingham. I possess small-town hospitality and sensibility, yet bring a wealth of professional knowledge, skill and experience. Together, this allows me to understand the needs of our rural communities and provide exceptional care across the lifespan."

Jason received a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from Piedmont College in Demorest, GA, and then a Master of Science degree from the University of North Georgia. He also received a Master of Health Care Administration from Bellevue University in Bellevue, Nebraska.
