Lovejoy Health Center Welcomes New Provider

ALBION - Connie Coggins, HealthReach President/CEO is pleased to announce the appointment of Dean Chamberlain, DO to the medical staff of Lovejoy Health Center. Chamberlain will be providing medical care including osteopathic manipulative treatment or OMT to area residents of all ages. He recently graduated from the Maine Dartmouth Family Practice Residency. In 2012, he received a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree at University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, School of Osteopathic Medicine. Previously he graduated from Fairleigh Dickinson University, NJ with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology.

Chamberlain's areas of interest include behavioral health, osteopathic manipulation, pediatrics, and management of chronic diseases.

At the health center, Chamberlain will work alongside Forrest West, MD; Bert E. Mason, DPM; Gretchen Morrow, PA; Margo Beemer, FNP; Kathryn Dempsey, PA; and Deborah Daigle, LCSW. Over 4,000 people from Albion, China, Freedom, Palermo, Thorndike, Troy, Unity, and other surrounding communities use the health center for physicals, chronic care management, behavioral health, podiatry, and more.

Lovejoy Health Center is part of HealthReach Community Health Centers, a group of eleven Federally Qualified Health Centers in Central and Western Maine. Dedicated providers deliver high quality medical and behavioral health care to citizens in over 80 rural communities. To ensure access for everyone, HealthReach accepts Medicare, MaineCare and major insurances. In addition, an Affordable Care Program is available to uninsured and underinsured residents as well as assistance with applications for programs that help with the cost of health care and medications including the Health Insurance Marketplace. A private, non-profit celebrating a 40-year history, HealthReach is funded by patient fees, grants and individual donations.
