Find ways to save money on healthcare costs at Tranten's

KINGFIELD - Are you finding it difficult to afford healthcare? Are you currently uninsured and wondering what options are still out there? Come to Tranten's Family Market in Kingfield on Friday, July 15th from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM. Mt Abram Regional Health Center will be sponsor a Healthcare Information table in market's parking lot with information on programs that can make your prescriptions and healthcare more affordable.

Crystal Fitch, HealthReach Connector, will be present to answer questions you may have about affording healthcare. Come with your questions and leave with information on programs that can save you money and help you to get the care you need. Karen Campbell, LPN will be present to provide free blood pressure screenings. Feel free to take some fun giveaways as well!

Tranten's Family Market in Kingfield is located on North Main Street. For more information, call (207) 265-4555.

Mt Abram Regional Health Center is part of HealthReach Community Health Centers, a group of eleven Federally Qualified Health Centers in Central and Western Maine. Dedicated providers deliver high quality medical and behavioral health care to citizens in over 80 rural communities. To ensure access for everyone, HealthReach accepts Medicare, MaineCare and major insurances. In addition, an Affordable Care Program is available to uninsured and underinsured residents as well as assistance with applications for programs that help with the cost of healthcare and medications including the Health Insurance Marketplace. A private, non-profit with a 41-year history, HealthReach is funded by patient fees, grants and individual donations.
