Find ways to save money on healthcare costs at Windsor Days Parade

WINDSOR - Are you finding it difficult to afford your healthcare? Are you currently uninsured and wondering what options are still out there? Come to Windsor Days on Saturday, July 11th from 9:30 AM to 2:00 PM. Sheepscot Valley Health Center will be sponsoring a Healthcare Information table at the Windsor Fairgrounds Mall area with information on programs that can make your healthcare more affordable.

Ann Schwab, HealthReach Connector, will be present to answer questions you may have about affording your healthcare. Come with your questions and leave with information on programs that can save you money and help you to get the care you need. Feel free to take some fun giveaways as well!

Ann Schwab, Connector

Windsor Fairgrounds is located on Ridge Road, also known as Route 32 in Windsor, Maine – just off Route 17.

About Sheepscot Valley Health Center

Sheepscot Valley Health Center is part of HealthReach Community Health Centers, a group of eleven Federally Qualified Health Centers in Central and Western Maine. Dedicated providers deliver high quality medical and behavioral health care to citizens in over 80 rural communities. To ensure access for everyone, HealthReach accepts Medicare, MaineCare and major insurances. In addition, an Affordable Care Program is available to uninsured and underinsured residents as well as assistance with applications for programs that help with the cost of health care and medications including the Health Insurance Marketplace. A private, non-profit celebrating a 40-year history, HealthReach is funded by patient fees, grants and individual donations.
